

MRS. HOWARD C. NELSON
... On Tahoe Honeymoon

Margaret Farrell Is Now Mrs. Howard C. Nelson

In one of the most beautiful weddings of the summer season, Miss Margaret Ann Farrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Farrell of San Diego, became the bride of Howard C. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nelson, 1804 Marinette, Torrance. St. Vincent de Paul's Catholic Church in San Diego was the scene of the impressive 11 o'clock nuptial mass last Saturday morning, July 27.

Heading the bridal entourage were the two bridesmaids, Misses Floradel Green and Joni Wantuch. They wore bouffant gowns of yellow taffeta and matching brimmed hats. Each carried a basket of daisies.

Next in line was the maid of honor, Miss Patricia Mulcahey. She also wore a billowy yellow gown with matching hat and carried a white basket of daisies.

Then came the beautiful bride on the arm of her father. She was regal in her floor length wedding gown of white imported organza. The gown was ornamented with appliqued Irish lace. Her full fingertip silk illusion veil cascaded from a flat pearl headpiece and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Gerald Farrell, the bride's brother, performed the duties of best man and Louie Lab served as usher.

The Rev. R. Fox officiated at the double ring vow recitation and the nuptial mass before an altar banked with white stock, gladioli, carnations and candles. At the close of the mass, the bride placed her bouquet on the altar of the Madonna.

A reception for the 300 wedding guests was held at the Town and Country Club in

FLORIDA GUEST

An interesting visitor is Mrs. M. D. Hedman of St. Petersburg, Fla. who arrived this week to visit Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schwartz, 1713 Martina and her nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Schwartz. Mrs. Hedman is a teacher in a reading clinic in St. Petersburg.

AT YELLOWSTONE

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass, 1614 Beech Ave. and Hazel Ward returned last week from a month's vacation. They spent three weeks at Yellowstone National Park and four days at the Lava Hot Springs in Idaho.

(Story Page 15)

MRS. DAVID CHILDERS
... Recites Vows

Torrance Herald Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

AUGUST 1, 1957

FA 8-5164

Nine

Demont-McNary Vows Spoken at Nativity Church

An effective all-white theme with dramatic touches of pink added in the bridal bouquets was used at the ceremony at 3 p.m. last Saturday afternoon, July 27, at Nativity Catholic Church when Miss Claire Anne Demont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Louis Demonet, 2317 Sonoma St., recited her wedding vows with David Ray McNary. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benton McNary, 5304 Reese Rd., Torrance.

The attractive bride walked to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of imported French Chantilly lace over satin and net. The waltz length gown had a Sabrina neckline. A pearl tiara secured the fingertip illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of pink dwarf roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Joan McDonnell, sister of the bride, served as the matron of honor. She wore a pink crystalline gown and carried pink gladioli and white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Ann McGarry, Lynn Saine, Sharon Stanton and Cindy Young. They were in white chiffon over pink taffeta and their bouquets were of pink gladioli and white carnations.

Miss Susan McNary, sister of the bridegroom, was the junior bridesmaid. She wore a floor length gown of white chiffon over pink taffeta and carried a pink and white bouquet.

Thomas Webb stood as best man and ushers were Robert Demonet, Ronald Bush, David McDonnell and Charles Babbitt.

Mrs. M. McConologue, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Miss Diane Powers, soloist.

The Rev. Thomas Glynn officiated at the marriage.

A reception was held at the church hall where Mrs. Judith Glasgow registered the guests. The bride's table was centered with a white tiered wedding cake decorated with pink roses and topped with a miniature bridal couple.

The newlyweds are now in Santa Barbara on a honeymoon. Their new address is 316 Calle Miramar, Redondo. The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School, El Camino College, Whittier College and Long Beach State. She will teach next year at the Seaside school here.

Mr. McNary was graduated from Torrance High and El Camino College. He is now employed by a Hollywood Riviera firm.

Delta Gams Meet Aug. 5

Delta Gamma chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority will hold a special meeting Monday, Aug. 5, at 8 p.m. at the home of the newly elected president, Mrs. P. M. Crossman, 2143 Middlebrook Rd.

Plans will be made for future activities of the group—both philanthropic and social. Currently the sorority has been engaged in Torrance Ranchero Days' participation and other things aimed toward enlarging their donation to the Little Company of Mary Hospital.

Other officers elected recently include Mmes. J. L. Clifford, vice president; Robert Mosher, recording secretary; Thomas Colter, corresponding secretary; E. C. Osterlund, treasurer; William Phillips, parliamentarian; Marguerite Kelsey, educational director.

THREE FAMILIES ON VACATION

A wonderful four-day holiday was enjoyed over last weekend by three local families, Mr. and Mrs. William Crocker and Patricia and Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Stuckey and Sharon and Billy, and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Paten and Mark. The group spent the four days water skiing, boating and camping at Refugio Beach, north of Santa Barbara.

Golf Section

Golf section of the Torrance Woman's Club held a summer get-together last Tuesday. The group met at Alondra Park for several rounds of golf after which they had luncheon at the Club Alondra.

In the group were: Mmes. M. A. Bauman, W. O. Clausen, J. A. Eisenbrandt, F. P. Foley, Herman Mitchell, Parke Montague and Burton Easley. Another social session is planned for September.

(Bob Roberts Photo)

MRS. DAVID RAY McNARY
... On Her Wedding Day

CELEBRATE WIN

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Spelman, of 803 Calle de Arboles, Hollywood Riviera, entertained three couples Saturday night at a barbecue celebrating the Torrance American Little League's victory in the district play-offs.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roettger, Mr. and Mrs. Charlton A. Mewborn and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

IDAHO VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McIntyre returned Tuesday from a two weeks' vacation in Pocatello, Ida., and Cash Valley, Utah, where they visited with friends and relatives.

Marguerite O'Connell Weds Vincent Guiliani on July 25

In a 10 o'clock ceremony Thursday morning, July 25, at the Nativity Catholic Church, Miss Marguerite M. O'Connell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis O'Connell, 21602 Denker St. exchanged her wedding vows with Vincent Guiliani, of Los Angeles, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Julian of Milford, Mass.

Mrs. M. McConologue at the organ accompanied Miss Diane Powers who sang "Ave Maria," "O Beautiful Mother" and "Pans Angelicus."

The bridal procession entered the church to the first chords of the wedding march.

Mrs. Eileen Robert served as the matron of honor. She wore a pink brocade taffeta trimmed in pink satin and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and pink roses.

Then came the bride on the arm of her father. She was radiant in her wedding gown of poudre blue Chantilly lace fashioned with a fitted bodice and a bouffant waltz length skirt. She wore matching Chantilly gloves. Her embroidered illusion veil was held by a headband of tiny pearls and she carried white orchids encircled by white carnations.

Ted Lee Juan stood as best man and the Rev. Thomas Glynn officiated at the marriage.

A wedding breakfast was then served to the 50 relatives and friends at the home of the bride's parents.

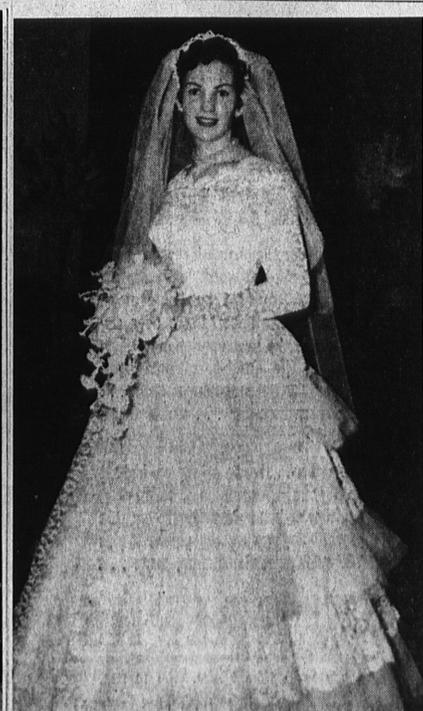

The couple are now at home in Costa Mesa after a honeymoon trip up the coast to Santa Cruz.

The bride, who was educated in Massachusetts, has lived here with her family for several years. She has been employed at Douglas.

Her husband is a graduate of Milford, Mass. High School.

TOUR DEEP SOUTH

Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Sipple and son Harry have returned from a several weeks' trip through the deep South. They visited Mrs. Sipple's relatives in Savannah, Ga., and were accompanied home by her sister, Miss Etoria Gann. En route home they stopped in New Orleans, and visited friends in Phoenix, Ariz. Miss Gann left Sunday for her home.

(Story Page 14)

MRS. CHARLES H. HANSEN
... Midsummer Bride

(Stanford Photo)

MRS. VINCENT GIULIANI
... Makes Promises